FIRST READING

DATE PASSED: May 13, 2014

SECOND READING

DATE PASSED: June 10, 2014

PUBLIC HEARING: June 10, 2014

BE IT HEREBY ORDAINED BY THE BOARD OF MAYOR AND ALDERMEN OF THE TOWN OF LOUISVILLE, TENNESSEE, AS FOLLOWS:

WHEREAS, The Board of Mayor and Alderman desire for the Town of Louisville to rescind its existing beer ordinance, 2010-26, and reinstate the prior beer ordinance, 1991-7, as previously amended and as amended herein ; and

WHEREAS, it has been determined that the adoption of this ordinance is necessary and proper for the health, safety and welfare of citizens of the Town of Louisville; and

THEREFORE, IT IS ORDAINED:

1. Ordinance 2010-26, passed on second and final reading on September 14, 2010, is hereby RESCINDED in and Ordinance 1991-7, as amended prior to the enactment of Ordinance 2010-26 is hereby REINSTATED.
2. Current members of the Beer Board shall continue to serve until their terms expire. They are eligible for reappointment to the Beer Board by the Mayor so long as the number of members of the Beer Board at the time of the appointment does not exceed the number authorized by Ordinance 1991-7.
3. To be consistent with the current law of the State of Tennessee as set forth in TCA 57-5-104, Section 7 of Ordinance 1991-7 is amended to reflect that the fee to accompany a nonrefundable application for a beer permit is Two Hundred and Fifty Dollars ($250.00) and adding the following language: "There is hereby imposed on the business of selling, distributing, storing or manufacturing beer in this state a privilege tax of one hundred dollars ($100)”

4. To be consistent with the current law of the State of Tennessee as set forth in TCA 57-5-101, the language of Section 6 of Ordinance 1991-7 is replaced in its entirety with the following:

“Beer” defined. The term “beer” as used in this chapter shall be the same as the definition of “beer” in Tennessee Code Annotated 57-5-101.

5. This Ordinance shall take effect immediately upon final passage, the public welfare requiring it.
